This is your chance to kick a winning goal in this historical building, which in its past was known to manufacture the iconic Sherrin football. Today, it's known as the area's most iconic warehouse transformation of 12 loft style apartments, oozing with much loveable charm from the bygone era and number 1 is definitely the pick of them all.

Its corner position allows you to easily park your car under cover and simply walk straight on through your very own independent entrance, revealing a very practical 2 level design you'll want to call your own.

Your excitement will be on the upper level as exposed polished concrete floors flow throughout its defining open plan design, offering a seamless connection outdoors to a large undercover terrace ideal for those larger social
