Step Inside For A Mega Surprise...

A truly imaginative transformation has creative this stylish New York style 3 level residence that offers flexible and independent accommodation on the inside within a minutes' walk to what we love about Brunswick that include good food, shopping and trams on Sydney road and the convenience of being so close to Anstey Train Station.

Favourably located on the edge of this standout group, its position maximizes its natural light that streams on through every room. Upon entrance through the front or garage access doors you step into the lower level that offers the perfect home/office or artist's studio room with its own toilet and hidden laundry area. Emerge up onto the 1st level to an overwhelming oversized open plan living area that leads out onto 2 very cool outdoor retreat areas and well placed kitchen that allows you to entertain and be proud. A thoughtful design on the 2nd level smartly center's the family bathroom perfectly separating the 2 generous mirrored robe bedrooms and dedicated study space.
