Step Inside For A Mega Surprise...

Proved to be a hit with those wanting a designated home office space away from everyday living, is this classy youthful street facing apartment combining low maintenance and practical apartment living perfectly.

A light filled 2nd floor position enjoys a welcoming open plan living space which naturally proceeds outdoors and overlooks an expertly finished and functional kitchen with high end finishes and appliances. A thoughtful design also separates the European laundry away from the double shower bathroom retreat. The master bedroom suite and separate home office also offer excellent robe storage options. Committed extras include: Ducted heating, ducted cooling, secure intercom entry, secure undercover parking and the convenience of having a well-equipped gym just on level 4.

Living here will have you right in the heart of a cool urban and connected location which contributes to the suburb's
