You'll never be bored again as this apartment allows you to call on your friends for some wine time in your own courtyard or the perfect address to say let's meet across the road at Thornbury Bowls or on happening High Street, where you can party or party elsewhere by catching the tram or train both very easily from your front door.

Its fresh & loveable interior provides a pleasing open plan living room, nice kitchen with loads of cupboard & bench spaces with the added benefits of being able to install a dishwasher, double mirrored robed bedroom which enjoys the backdrop of your own garden retreat and yes, the bathroom incorporates laundry facilities.
